Visit to the Tutankhamun Exhibition - Friday 28th February 2020

Tutankhamun - the boy king, was born in about 1342 BC and inherited the throne at the age of 8 or 9 years. He is thought to have died around 1324. The exhibition commemorates the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb, unearthed by Howard Carter in 1922. A selection of the items discovered then was displayed in London in the 1970's. This new exhibition is larger and displays more than 150 of the tomb's objects. Unfortunately, the funeral mask has not been allowed to leave Egypt. It is worth noting though that this is the last time ever that Egypt will permit any of Tutankhamun's treasures to leave Cairo.

For further information see www.saatchigallery.com/art/tutankhamun.php

Our tickets are timed for entry at 2:00 pm and it is suggested by the Saatchi Gallery that we allow up to 30 minutes to complete the airport style security.

The Saatchi Gallery has a self-service restaurant open all day and there are many cafes and pubs in the nearby Kings Road. Our plan is to arrive in the Kings Road at around 12:00 to allow time for lunch and perhaps a look at the other exhibits in the Saatchi Gallery. We will leave the exhibition at around 4:00 pm

Leaving Wallingford Library at 09:30 am and Crowmarsh Church at 09:35 am
